

If you guessed Murphy's friend Anthony Ardis you were wrong ! It was Chet Mazza.

Arrested were Anthony Ardis, 56, of Paterson a former congressional aide and one-time PVSC commissioner; Kevin Keogh, 45, a former West Orange councilman and superintendent of special services at the agency; and Chester Mazza, 69, of Totowa...

Mazza, who retired from the State Police as a detective sergeant in 1985, had ties to former Passaic County GOP Chairman Peter Murphy and had worked for the county's utilities authority as chief of enforcement. He was hired by PVSC in 1999 as a safety officer, later becoming superintendent of safety and then assistant superintendent of special services, with a $127,276 salary that more than doubled in the past ten years. Mazza also had a Dodge Durango assigned to him - Star Ledger Wednesday, February 02, 2011

Below are photos of Chet Mazza's house with Pascrel, Duffy and Totowa Candidates signs in the 2010 general election (right top and bottom left), and, in the same spots, signs for the GOP Strong slate this year (2011).

