

Why did Scangarello go off the line? You be the judge:

First some background. Peter Murphy founded GOP Strong when he was released from prison. Before his conviction Murphy had been a commissioner at the Passaic Valley Sewage Commission, which was a patronage pit that Governor Christie dismantled, and where Scangarello got a job and was promoted to Administrative Archivist.

This year after Scangarello was fired at Governor Christie's instigation, his council candidates told numerous people that they were running on the PCRRO line and not with GOP Strong. He even started attending PCRRO meetings.

Then things changed. He was given a patronage job by one of Murphy's cronies, the county clerk, and he moved his candidates to the GOP Strong line.

You be the judge. Did Scangarello really change his mind for one of the many excuses he has given lately, or did he do it because he was given the made up patronage job of "confidential aid" at almost $60,000.00 a year of taxpayer money?
